September 2017

Dear Parents and Carers

I am delighted to confirm that our next Saturday Theatre will take place on Saturday 30th September 2017 at Queen Emma Primary School. West End in Schools theatre group will be performing 'Jump to It'. There will be two performances at 1.30 p.m. and 3.30 p.m. and doors will open 15 minutes before each performance.

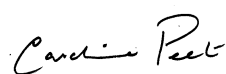

'Jump to It' tells the story of Claire who is so busy playing her computer game that she forgets about her real life. Claire forgets to do her homework, forgets how much she likes to read books and sometimes even forgets to be kind to her best friend. And then in one terrifying moment, she realises that she has been sucked into the unfamiliar world of the computer game she is playing, where everything is different. Join Claire on an exciting musical journey of self-discovery as she tries to navigate her way through the virtual world of a computer game with just a handful of books and the help of some very interesting new friends!

This production is suitable for children in Reception through to Y6. We are sure the performances will be very popular, but we have only 200 tickets for each performance so cannot offer them to children who do not attend Queen Edith or Queen Emma Schools with the exception of older brothers and sisters. As previously, children must be accompanied by an adult as we do not have sufficient staff in school to supervise all the children.

Tickets for either performance will be available via the school office. Please return your completed reply slip and money in a labelled envelope. Tickets will cost £4 per child and £3 per adult.

Our Christmas Saturday Theatre for this school year will take place on Saturday 25th November 2017 with two performances of 'A Christmas Carol' by the Booster Cushion Theatre for Children. Do keep the date free!

With kind regards

Caroline Peet
